

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT

2019 ANNUAL REPORT

Catherine Metz, Parks and Recreation Director

The City of Durango Parks and Recreation Department provides a variety of parks, trails, forestry, cemetery, open space, and recreation services to the community. This annual report will highlight the services provided and projects completed in 2019.

OVERVIEW

In 2019 several significant goals identified in the Strategic Plan were accomplished as listed below:

- Lake Nighthorse Recreation Area successfully completed the second year of operation with the addition of an ADA fishing pier and picnic area in partnership with the Bureau of Reclamation.
- Management and stewardship of 5,299.97 acres of land in the City.
- Maintained national accreditation with the Commission for Accreditation of Park and Recreation Agencies.
- Achieved 89% cost recovery for all recreation services including the operation of the Recreation Center, Durango Gymnastics, Chapman Hill as well as youth and adult programs.
- Initiated construction of the one-mile extension of the Animas River Trail north from Animas City Park to Oxbow Park and Preserve and the Oxbow Park river access.
- Initiated LED lighting conversion at the Durango Community Recreation Center.
- Formalized the Wildfire Adapted Partnership to identify fuels reduction priorities in the Durango Wildland Urban Interface on City open space lands.
- Completed Year 6 of the Monitoring Avian Productivity and Survivorship (MAPS) study at Oxbow Park and Preserve.
- Completed park system upgrades including Cundiff Park skills course, Skatepark shade structure and seating area and community forest tree planting.
- Completed construction of Moore Parks Shop at Greenmount Cemetery and renovation of the boiler system at the Durango Community Recreation Center.
- Completed the update of the Parks, Open Space, Trails and Recreation Master Plan.

The Parks and Recreation Department issues park permits, rafting permits and facility rental permits for the Durango Community Recreation Center, Durango Gymnastics, and Chapman Hill Rink and Pavilion.
